Audiences leap to their feet as they travel with young Clara to the land of sweets in our full-length production of "The Nutcracker". NACBT dancers, from all parts of Central Ohio, starting as young as age 4, are pleased to perform "The Nutcracker" at the Jeanne B. McCoy Center for the Arts in New Albany, Ohio. NACBT will have five performances on the following dates; Friday December 11th, Saturday December 12th, and Sunday December 13th 2015.

Advertising in our playbill is a great way to promote to our audience members, support the arts in New Albany & Central Ohio, help our theatre fulfill our mission, and/or gain exposure for your business. Our performances draw over 3500 attendees and our playbills are distributed to potential new students or families in New Albany. Our past holiday productions have received great reviews by community newspapers, The Columbus Dispatch, local radio announcements, and local ABC & FOX television stations.

The mission of NACBT is to create an environment where children can learn the value of artistic expression. It provides a strong and positive youth program where children can strive to reach their potential as dancers and as young citizens. NACBT realized the full commitment and dedication it takes to produce local youth dance productions. Our vision was to lay a foundation for annual performances in our community of a holiday classic and to expand our dance season to include spring productions as well. Our children dances are committed and enthusiastic about belonging to NACBT and performing in productions that the entire community will cherish in the years to come.
